More Railway Excitement in Winnipeg—Sir John A. Going to England.

A Dog Shoots a Woman Dead—The Quebec Suicide—Poisoned Candies.

[Special to THE TIMES.]

Winnipeg, Oct. 18—The city was mightily stirred up yesterday by the news that the C. P. R. had killed the engine on the line where the R. R. V. R. extension will cross their line, then tore up the constructions and rebuilt their line round the obstruction. The government, however, laugh at the attempted obstruction and say they will go right on and cross the C. P. R. at all hazards. Sixteen coach loads of people made a trip over the R. R. V. R. to Pembina yesterday.

Ottawa, Oct. 18—Sir John A. Macdonald goes soon to England to confer with the Imperial Government on the fisheries dispute and the relations of Canada to the United States.

As soon as Gen. Middleton returns, the National Defence Committee, authorized last session will be constituted.

Niagara Falls, Oct. 18—Lord Stanley and family arrived here yesterday and spent the day seeing sights on the Canadian side. To-day was spent on the New York side.

Barrie, Oct. 18—Four poisoned chocolates, similar to those which killed the Cherry girl at Galt, were received by Mrs. Thos. Lennon through the mail yesterday. No clue to sender.

Salvation Army Soldiers for India—Another "Mill" Spoken Of

Montreal, Oct. 18—Twenty Salvation Army soldiers left yesterday for India. They were given a most enthusiastic and gorgeous farewell.

Kilrain and a syndicate backing the unknown met at the Windsor Hotel yesterday to arrange the terms of a fight. The matter fell through because Kilrain insisted on knowing the name of his antagonist, which the other refused to divulge till fifteen days before the mill.

Quebec, Oct. 18—Count Premio Real, who has been consul-general of Spain for a number of years, blew out his brains yesterday. Real estate speculation had ruined him and political changes in Spain had resulted in the sending of another to supersede him.

Berthier, Oct. 18—Mrs. Smith was shot dead by a dog yesterday. Her husband's gun was laying loaded on a chair pointing towards her, and a dog caught its paw on the trigger and discharged the gun. In her struggle to escape, Mrs. Smith received the charge in her breast.

BARKERVILLE NEWS.

Remarkable Adventure With a Bear—Rogers the Favorite.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

Barkerville, Oct. 12—This burgh has been torn to pieces this last week over a bear, Shepherd, our local Nimrod, and Billy Hodgkinson having covered themselves with glory and some gore. They started out at 2 p. m. and returned at 7, having found the bear, killed it and brought home its paws, which weighed 12 pounds. Different versions of the capture are about; some insisting that they found the bear dead, but the following seems genuine: Shep and Billy were wandering about looking for a dead bullock. They found it and found a bear too, but as they hadn't lost any bear they looked around for some haven of safety. Shep had seen bears before, but they were chained, or in a pit, and he could look on calmly. He now found the difference between a caged bear and an angry bear defending his muck-a-muck very great, and suddenly remembered a pressing engagement he had with a man in town. He was doubtful in fact whether he could get there in time to keep the appointment. But the bear having assured himself that his bullock was still there came after them, showing his teeth. Shep had heard of the power of the eye on a wild beast, and throwing himself in a tragic attitude he transfixed the bear with his eye. The bear, however, apparently unconscious of the power, came on, fire in his eye and murder in his heart. Shep's eyes grew larger and he felt himself growing larger—his hat was rising—the critical moment was near. Shep dropped his gun and there was an explosion. To the surprise of the hunters the bear "swatted" the atmosphere a time or two with his foot and then sat down and looked at them (the ball had gone through his spine). Somewhat reassured by the peaceful attitude of the king of the forest, they both tried to shoot, but Billy's gun wouldn't go. Shep by accident put a "flea" in his ear and he went to sleep, "to dream of fighting fields no more." His hide weighed about sixty pounds and the bear probably 475 pounds. He is pronounced a "grizzly."

The weather has broken and it seems doubtful whether the much-needed chlorinator will be at work this year.

Flowers are still blooming in the windows of those ladies who take the trouble to cultivate them.

John Murray takes the cake for potatoes grown in this latitude, and but for the 25 cents per pound freight which everything has to pay going by express, he would probably have taken some prizes at some of your shows.

Politics is to be the next excitement, but the war is afar off, Clinton and Lillooet being at present the stumping ground of the candidates. Whatever may be the result cannot be at present foretold, but Rogers will have the almost unanimous support in this vicinity, his nomination paper having been signed by about six-sevenths of the voters.

Chinese Exclusion.

The steamer Ancon is awaiting orders on Puget Sound regarding the 29 Chinese passengers from Alaska. A telegram was sent to Washington asking permission to land them. It is a foregone conclusion that they will not be allowed to set foot on American soil and the only solution of the difficulty will be to secure their passage on some vessel foreign bound or pay the $50 tax and land them in this Province.

DUNCAN AT PT. CHESTER.

A Cool Reception—A Reporter's Opinion of the Colony.

A Skeena war correspondent of the Montreal Witness, after completing his expedition to Hazelton, visited Port Chester, the new home of the Metlakahtlans in Alaska. He writes: "Hearing nothing but bad about Mr. Duncan in British Columbia I determined, in the event of visiting the new mission, to hear Mr. Duncan's own story if possible. I had been told that he disliked visitors, and formerly, when a Justice of the Peace in Canada, had had a disagreeable habit of putting white men in gaol on their arrival at Metlakahtla, the reason alleged being that they came to corrupt the morals of his Indians. I was received with apparent kindness, however, and it was not until after I had been his guest at the breakfast table, and dined on some biscuits bought in the store, that I met with any sign of my not being welcome. I expressed my intention of remaining until the arrival of the first steamer, and for the six ensuing days desired to secure a rented room in the village, and buy food at the store in default of better accommodation. On my stating this as being my wish and requesting information as to any unoccupied houses I was asked to produce letters of introduction first; and I considered this as so insulting that I declined to so misuse the credentials I possess, but realized that the intention was to get me out of the place by artifice in default of power. My efforts to leave were so promptly seconded by Mr. Duncan, that I departed in the evening, and passed the night helping two Indians to contend with the foulest weather and so reached Tongass Narrows in safety.

While it would be hard to congratulate Mr. Duncan upon his hospitality, I was much impressed with his business capacity. He carried from Metlakahtla much of the machinery and stores now in use, after his Indians had wrecked the cannery and saw mill and made a somewhat childish attempt to destroy the church, which is the property of the Church Missionary Society. The new store is the best and cheapest I have seen north of Victoria; there is an excellent saw-mill, a cannery building not yet completed, and a small steamer that needs reconstruction. There is a large but partial clearing, an industrial school in course of erection, and the Indians have sufficient shanties for present needs. Mr. Duncan is stated to have offered last winter to dispose of his property to the Indians and leave on receipt of ($50,000 00) fifty thousand dollars. With any amount of cheap labor paid in goods from his store, and with capital openings for trade, Mr. Duncan ought to do better than that. As to the mission, if it is not very much more than self-supporting next year, it will be for want of good management. Apart from the mission there was at the time of my visit a good opposition store run by a half-breed in the village. It has since been closed, however. There are difficulties about the land as to whether the Indians should or should not pay Mr. Duncan for lots on the reserve, but I do not know the bearings on this question. Mr. Duncan has not been by any means successful in gaining the public good-will in Alaska than in British Columbia. Of late the local government is alleged to have withdrawn from assisting him, and the dislike of the people is very marked and expressed openly with many grave but probably unfounded charges. As far as I can judge, the Indians, as a whole, are satisfied, and most of them will remain in Alaska. Notwithstanding many ill-considered charges made against Mr. Duncan's personal character, he has proved a successful missionary and a good business man.

SPORTING NOTES.

O'Connor and Teemer to Row at Washington—Lacrosse.

In the Centre Ontario championship series the Barrie and Bradford teams have been ruled out for playing outsiders in matches. The pennant now rests between Peterboro and Orillia. Peterboro will most likely carry off the trophy as they have never played any outsiders.

THE OAR.

Edward Hanlan cabled R. K. Fox, Wednesday, from Sydney, N. S. W., that John Teemer has been matched to row Peter Kemp on the Parramatta river for $2,500 a side and the championship. Teemer to have six months in which to train.

Hanlan was unable to give any reason for his defeat except that he had been outrowed. His backers and friends express the opinion that his condition was not what it should have been, and that his stubbornness in acting as his own trainer had a great deal to do with his defeat.

WORLD'S RECORD BROKEN.

An unusually interesting meeting of the London Athletic Club took place at Stamford Bridge, on September 22nd, when E. H. Pelling must have astonished himself and his warmest admirers by running 250 yards in the extraordinary time of 24 4-5 sec. This is now the world's record for this distance, the best times previously being 25½ sec. by C.G. Wood, 25¼ sec. by Hutchens, and 26 sec. by Myers.

FOOTBALL MATCHES.

A game of football will take place on Beacon Hill on Saturday, Nov. 3rd, between the Victoria and Vancouver football clubs. The return match between the Nanaimo Rovers and Victoria clubs will take place on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 15th. The local club will meet on Beacon Hill next Saturday afternoon for practice.

THE CHIEF OF POLICE.

Mr. Bloomfield Summarily Dismissed With Three Months' Salary.

The action of the City Council last night in resolving upon a reconstruction and reorganization of our police force is in accordance with the views of a majority of the citizens. The police force has not been that terror to evil doers that it ought to have been, and in arriving at a determination to improve the present order of things the Council will have the support of the people generally. Mr. Bloomfield may or may not be an inefficient chief; but it matters not what he has been dismissed for, the charge against him should be formulated. It is said that he challenges an investigation into his conduct and defies his enemies to fasten any wrong-doing upon him. He is either guilty or he is innocent, and the public have a right to know which. Give us the facts.

For the North.

The steamer Nell is expected from Queen Charlotte Island and will leave on or about Saturday evening for Skeena river.

THIS DAY'S DISPATCHES

Sir Richard Cartwright on Annexation—Shot Himself Dead.

A Westminster Man's Opinion—The Emperor at Pompeii—Married.

Toronto, Oct. 18—In a speech last night ex-Minister Cartwright said that annexation to the United States was inevitable unless both countries could agree on free trade. He pronounced the federations cheme an impossibility.

M'KENZIE'S BOOK.

London, Oct. 18—It is rumored that the decree of confiscation issued against Sir Morell Mackenzie's book in Germany will be annulled. The German publisher has lodged a protest against confiscation, and unless the prosecution is begun within a fortnight the German law prescribes that the decree of confiscation shall become void.

A WESTMINSTER MAN'S OPINION.

San Francisco, Oct. 18—"Once the Chinese get into British Columbia," said Henry T. Boyer, a merchant of New Westminster, this morning, "they are given pointers by their countrymen residing there, and they manage at their leisure, by taking boats to New Westminster and Vancouver, to work their way down into American possessions. Some of them board the Canadian Pacific road and run out to small stations where debarking they make their way through the woods to your American towns. It is but a short distance, only 15 or 20 miles, or thereabouts, to the boundary. The American officials along there don't in the least stand in the way of the Chinese, for they are few and far between from in Washington Territory, opposite Vancouver, to Spokane Falls, a distance of nearly four hundred miles. Anywhere in this distance Chinaman can and do go through. There ought to be more government officials in these Northern woods and along the Sound as well."

CONSPIRACY IN MADRID.

London, Oct. 18—A despatch has been received announcing that the Spanish Prime Minister and Minister of Finance were suddenly taken ill at the same time, giving rise to the wild rumors of conspiracy and poison. The removal of these ministers would facilitate the scheme of those who intend to overthrow the government.

A MATCH ARRANGED.

New York, Oct. 18.—Teemer and O'Connor have signed articles to row on the Potomac, at Washington, on November 24th, for a thousand dollars a side, three miles and return.

A COMBINE'S WORK.

Cleveland, Oct. 18—J. W. Chandler, wholesale jewelers, have assigned; liabilities estimated at $50,000; assets $45,000. The failure grows out of a boycott declared against the firm by the Watchmakers' [illegible] throughout the United States, which completely controls the wholesale market.

APPEAL WITHDRAWN.

Washington Oct. 17.—The Interior department has been notified that the Northern Pacific has withdrawn its appeal from the decision of the Land Commissioner holding for cancellation the Company's selection of a section of land in Seattle land district, Washington Territory.

SHOT HERSELF DEAD.

Carson, Nev. Oct. 18—Hattie Fellows, aged 15, daughter of a carpenter, shot herself through the heart on Tuesday night. No cause is ascribed for the act except that she was high tempered and had been reproved by her parents.

WILL NOT ACCEPT.

London, Oct. 18—Michael Davitt has written a letter to the Times in which he says the Irish will not accept the scheme proposed by the Liberals for the government of Ireland unless the Irish parliament is allowed to solve the land question and to fix the compensation to be paid to landlords.

ADJOURNMENT OF SENATE.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 18—The Senate to-day passed a resolution to adjourn sine die on Saturday.

ANOTHER FORGER DISAPPEARS.

Rochester, Oct. 18—Hamlet S. Briggs, of M. Briggs & Sons, safe manufacturers, has disappeared. Attachments on his property to cover notes to the value of $14,000 have been issued and the signatures to these notes are supposed to be forged.

EMPEROR VISITS POMPEII.

Naples, Oct. 18—Emperor William went to Pompeii this morning. The Emperor was intensely interested in everything he saw at Pompeii, especially in the excavation made in his presence during the progress, of which several valuable bronze objects were unearthed. These were presented to the Emperor as souvenirs of his visit. The Emperor and King Humbert returned to Naples at noon and immediately departed for home.

AUSTRALIAN MAIL SUBSIDY.

Montreal, Oct. 18—A London cable despatch to-day states that negotiations are proceeding for the Canadian Pacific mail service to Australia. It is reported the promoters expect the subsidy to be equal to that granted to the eastern line in addition to the joint colonial subsidy of £50,000 or £60,000.

WHEAT MARKET.

New York, Oct. 18—Wheat is still weak; Oct., 18⅝; Nov., 109¾; Dec., 111¾; May, 116¼ asked.

Chicago, Oct. 18—Wheat was lower again; Nov., 110¼; Dec., 111⅝; May, 112⅝.

FREE OF DUTY.

Washington, Oct. 18—In the Senate to-day Gray presented a memorial from 500 citizens of Connecticut and manufactures that raw materials, particularly wool, salt, lumber, tinplate, etc., should come in free of duty. It was laid on the table.

COMEDIAN PRIVATELY MARRIED.

Chicago, Oct. 18—It has just transpired that Nat Goodwin, the comedian, was privately married here a few days ago to Nellie Rakes, who is said to be a prominent society woman from the east. Goodwin, while admitting the marriage, declines to say where his wife is from.

MAXWELL LAND GRANT.

Chicago, Oct. 18—Dr. J. L. Gunning of Amsterdam, who represents the Dutch bondholders in the Maxwell land grant, is in this city and says arrangements will shortly be made at Washington to indemnify settlers on the grant who bought when Secretary Cox of the Interior Department decided the Maxwell Grant was not valid.

THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

New York, Oct. 18—The City of New York was sighted at Fire Island at 10.10 this morning. This will make her trip to the lightship, off Sandy Hook, 6 days and a trifle over 15 hours. FOR HONGKONG.

San Francisco, Oct. 18—The steamer Parthia, of the Canadian Pacific line, sailed for Hongkong via Vancouver this morning, carrying 99 of her Chinese who were refused landing.

OUR TOWN MAJOR.

Moody's Meetings—City Police—Drill Shed—Shade Trees.

No matter what the "spirits," dead or alive, may say to the contrary, there were nineteen hundred souls (not spirits) in the rink last evening to listen to Mr. Moody preaching, to a very few of us, words of comfort, and to the rest the most uncomfortable things. We were told to cast our burthen off. Very nearly all have such a load that it would be a relief. The Major himself has a big load and he pities the cherub that will have to help him off with it. It's getting lighter however. The singing, owing to a goody man being absent, (especially from the front row) was not as strong as usual. The new hymns were a failure, notwithstanding the exertions of Mr. Brown.

Who goes to hear Mr. Moody? Why, everyone—lawyers, politicians, senators, boodlers, even newspaper men; aye, and from the Colonist, anxious and eager to listen. One of the "Devil's Own" has nearly shook off the grip of the "old boy;" he's up on the front seat now. All were prayed for last night—the mean, the low and the vicious. That was a big heap of corruption to pray for at once! "Those that humbleth themselves shall be exhalted," was fully illustrated. Mr. Moody is not what we here call a tony preacher; neither is his meeting house, but when those that humbleth themselves are fetched up to the front row, and provided with chairs, well, it looks like there was discrimination even in Mr. Moody's tent.

Now that the Aldermen have sacked the Superintendent of City Police without any cause that the public are aware of, they should give the promotion in the force, not outside. If the present officers are not worthy of promotion they should be sent about their business. But, gentlemen of the Victoria Board of Aldermen, give to the public the reason. It will be only an act of justice to the officer, the public and yourselves.

THE TOWN MAJOR.

MOODY'S MEETING.

The Proceedings Last Night at the Rink—Large Crowd.

The roller rink had the usual large and [illegible] thousand to listen to Mr. Moody, last night. After the singing of several hymns by the choir and a few words from Rev. Mr. McLeod, Mr. Moody commenced the usual service by saying a few words about "promises," and read of the Lord's promise to Abraham from Gens. 19th, and the promises to the Israelites in Deut. 11. The choir then sang the grand old Cornish hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," which was followed by a prayer for all, especially the mean and the low. The singing of the 60th and 44th hymns, and "Rescue the Perishing" concluded the opening services. Mr. Moody took for his text the 19th chap. of St. Matthew, 26, 27, and 28 verses, "come unto me all ye that are heavy laden; I will give you rest." The preacher, in his usual style, said that millionaires had no rest, neither had merchants, politicians, military men, speculators, etc.; money could not purchase rest. Long-faced Christians had no rest. Christ was the only means of rest. Yet it was to be had for the asking; the Saviour was willing to take our burthen of sin if we only asked Him. By prayer we may have rest, and the heart, no matter how much burthened and overloaded with sin, would receive rest in the bosom of Jesus Christ, who had said, "come unto me all ye that are heavy laden, I will give you rest." During the singing of the hymn, "I hear thy welcome voice that's calling," about one hundred went to the enquiry room on invitation by Mr. Moody. The Rev. Mr. McLeod addressed a few earnest words to the congregation. After prayer from several of the hearers the meeting was brought to a close with the benediction.

The usual service at Pandora Street Methodist Church this afternoon was well attended. The services will be continued by Mr. Moody at the rink every evening except Saturday at 8 o'clock. Choir practice as usual at 7:30 o'clock.

FROM VANCOUVER.

Runaway—Lecture—An Opium By-Law—Found Dead, Etc.

[From our own Correspondent.]

Vancouver, Oct. 17—The weather today is clear and cool. The Yosemite did not arrive till after 11 o'clock a.m. to-day.

Yesterday Charles Brodin, an old sailor, was found by a comrade dead in his bed in an outhouse to the rear of the Jubilee saloon near the corner of Abbott and Water streets. Deceased was about 50 years of age and had been complaining for some time past of a pain in the region of his heart. Heart disease is supposed to have caused his death. Brodin was a Swede and has no relatives here. There was no inquest.

Yesterday the Dominion Express Co.'s team started on Cordova street and run down the slope leading to the C. P. R. wharf and collided with the rear car of Atlantic express. The horses escaped unhurt, but the wagon was badly demoralized.

The opium by-law passed at Monday night's Council, provides that all persons selling or manufacturing opium in Vancouver shall pay a license of $500 per annum, the same to be paid semi-annually in advance. A violation of this law is punishable by a fine not exceeding $100 or by imprisonment not exceeding six months. THE FATHER OF VANCOUVER.

As at the opening of Stanley Park, at Vancouver, the Hon. John Robson, Provincial Secretary, is reported to have claimed that he is "the Father of Vancouver," let us analyze his right to that appellation! The city of Vancouver came into existence by the Canadian Pacific Railway becoming extended from Port Moody to Granville, twelve miles further down the Inlet, the Railway Company being granted by the Provincial authorities over six thousand acres of land. Mr. Robson was a member of the government, and is reputed to have been interested in land in the neighborhood. The grant to the the Railway Company comprised lot 526, group 1, containing 5795 acres, the adjoining lot 541, group 1, containing 480 acres, and thirty-nine lots in Granville. Two and a half acres were reserved out of each of the lots 526 and 541, for the use of the Provincial Government, and an agreement entered into between the government and the company to the effect that actual settlers upon the Granville lots should be allowed to purchase them from the Railway Company at $200 each. Not one foot of land is mentioned as having been reserved in the deed of this grant by the "Father of Vancouver" for a municipal hall or other civic purpose, for a fire department, for a public park or recreation ground for the citizens, for a hospital, a church, a library, or a charitable or benevolent association—not one thought was bestowed by this self-styled paternal, upon the rights of the people, who were to enhance the value of the land one thousand fold by their residence, and their industry, and enterprise. So silly a bargain did Mr. Robson assist in making that the Government have since been compelled to purchase land in Vancouver for school purposes, and many of the Granville squatters have been put to no end of trouble and expense. Private companies have been chartered to supply water, gas, and the electric light and street railways to the inhabitants, which if the true interests of the then embryo city had been considered would have been retained for the municipality. Was there ever such a charlatan allowed to pose himself before a free and intelligent people in any country as a benefactor? Nor is this all, for when Vancouver was in her swaddling clothes, and struggling for existence, the government, of which Mr. Robson was a member, passed legislation suspending some of the powers of the municipal officers, and obtained authority to appoint special constables to act within the city at the expense, but not under the control of the municipal authorities, on the plea that the municipal officers were unwilling or unable to protect Chinese who were employed to clear land. And to cap the climax, during the last session of the Legislature, an attempt was made to materially injure the municipal credit by eliminating from the act of incorporation the power to tax personal property at the very time that the city was negotiating an important loan. This attempt was subsequently abandoned. We do not remember the part Mr. Robson took in the affair.

We commend to the residents of the terminal city "the father of Vancouver." If we lived in that city we should consider him much more entitled to be called "the old man of the sea." Old residents of the Province, in referring to Mr. Robson, speak freely their opinion of him and his ways. They tell interesting anecdotes of the period when he posed as a good "Grit" and supporter of the Hon. Alex. McKenzie when he (Mr. Robson) was paymaster of the Canadian Pacific Railway Survey, and smile when any one refers to his morality.

There is no doubt that if Mr. Robson claimed paternity as reported, that his words must have been cloaked under some circumstances not generally known or current, as in our opinion he has not acted towards the child in a manner a kind parent usually does.

THE LABOR PROBLEM.

From an article published in the New York World, it would appear that the difficult problem of capital and labor, in some of the centers of industry is about being solved. The disposition shown of late by employers to share the profits with their employees, has not by any means become universal, but appears to be gaining ground every day, and will ere long, become an acknowledged article in the code regulating the relations of capital and labor. If honestly carried out, it ought to prevent strikes, lockouts, boycotts and tie-ups. Co-operative enterprises are springing up all over the country in trade as well as in manufactures. There are in New York and Brooklyn alone some three dozen or so factories at work now. On the whole this system of profit-sharing has been found successful wherever tried. The scheme embraces a fund available in case of sickness or disability, the employee receiving, when laid up or disabled from work, a sum equal to half his wages, and $100 is paid to relatives in case of death. It would seem that the rights and just claims of the workingman are by this plan recognized. He should be more diligent and zealous in the discharge of his duties, knowing that the interests and prosperity of the firm he works for are identified with his own. This must be admitted. There is nothing in this socialistic, as it is commonly understood. Co-operative stores have been found beneficial in England, and we have one store at Nanaimo, the financial report of which we published yesterday, which gives a fair showing and promises to be a success. The army canteen system, for years established in India, and afterwards adapted in 1867 on the plan of Captain Smith, 69th foot, to the army at home and in the colonies, was the first co-operative store. The system, as now existing, was copied from that plan. We are a young community, just starting out into life. Our manufacturing and mining industries will rapidly grow to vast proportions. We may have our strikes, boycotts, or lockouts on a scale hitherto unknown, and the fierce quarrels between employers and employed, which have in the past convulsed the industrial world, and carried disaster to all concerned may in all probability be a feature of our social existence at no distant day. The interest and claims of our workingmen should not be ignored or neglected. Those who preach to the contrary are not the true friends of capital—they are the socialists and anarchists, as their teachings tend to an estrangement of relations which to be lasting and cordial must be mutally satisfactory and beneficial.

TRADE COMBINES.

Our morning contemporary published in this morning's issue a tirade against combines and trusts. It states that the object of all "combines," great and small, is simply to increase their gains at the expense of the great body of consumers." This is indeed a new departure for our esteemed contemporary, and must be attributed to the teachings of The Times, or the preaching of Mr. Moody. We have for some time past been instructing the Colonist on our local combine which "increases its gains at the expense of the great body of consumers." The people in the east only have the evil effects of sugar; we suffer from the evils of sugar and coal combines. Both commodities possess heat producing qualities; so it comes that our heat-giving substances, both inward and outward, are "combined." The retail grocers of Montreal claim the protection of the law and the interference of the Legislature of the country against combines. The Legislature protects sugar refineries against outside competition. The granting of a monopoly of coal lands by a government either by rules, regulations or legal enactments, is as much a protective tariff on the matter of coal as the N. P. is to the sugar refineries. The coal consumers have every bit as just and legitimate a demand on the legislature of the country to regulate the traffic as has the retail grocer of the Dominion regarding the sugar combine. We are rejoiced to observe that the "socialistic doctrine" has had a decided effect on the Government street establishment, and hope it will now speak out against all monopoly of whatever kind or by whoever held or maintained.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Mr. Sanford Fleming, C. M. G., the author of the Trans-Pacific cable project, is advised from Sydney that the Australian Government are jointly urging the Imperial authorities to place several more steamers on the survey of the proposed route in order to expedite the work owing to the urgency that exists for the completion of the cable.

The Ottawa Free Press says Sir Adolphe has been so busy preaching loyalty in the eastern provinces that he had no time to attend to the battery in British Columbia. Our Ottawa contemporary chafes the "ultro-loyal Colonist" about being compelled to advertise to the world the inferiority of our militia to compel the Dominion Government to do its duty.

In the report on the adulteration of food, just issued by the Department of Inland Revenue at Ottawa, a strong attack is made on the many adulterated baking powders now on the market. The Customs Department is in receipt of samples of a compound which the importer frankly confesses is to be used in the manufacture of baking powders. It is known as Teva Alba, and is nothing more nor less than a powdered white clay, which cannot but be most injurious to health. The outcome of the analysis made by the Department should be a prosecution of the offending parties, as seemingly only by inflicting the the utmost penalty of the law can the public health be protected.

The contest for the mayoralty will be an interesting one in New York this year. Mr. Hewitt, whose boast is that there is only one other man in that city who can be "uglier" in the people's interest than he can, has been re-nominated by the county Democracy and a meeting of citizens, and he will, therefore, be the candidates of the Mugwumps and the progressive democracy. Tammany Hall will not recognize a man who refused to do honor to the Irish flag, and it will probably either nominate a candidate of its own or attempt to sell out the Mayoralty to the Republicans. The contest, in any event, must be between the man who has done what he thought was right without paying any attention to political exigencies and an ordinary politician, and the result will be a moderately good test of the political morality of the people of New York. If they want honest government they will re-elect Mr. Hewitt, and if they admire political astuteness they will elect somebody else.

CITY ALDERMEN.

Supt. Bloomfield Dismissed—Drill Shed—Public Library.

At 8 o'clock last evening the city council met for their regular weekly meeting. Present, Ald. Powell, Coughlan, Wilson, Styles, Vigelius, Braden, Harris and Penwill.

Minutes of previous meeting read and on motion, duly seconded, adopted.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The acting City Clerk stated that he received a garnishee order from Nicholles & Renout on all monies due by the corporation to John Haggarty. Referred to City Barrister.

From Redon & Hartnagel asking permission to open Fort street drain which was doing considerable damage by flooding their cellar. Permission was granted to open the street.

From Coughlan & Mason asking permission to use a portion of Broughton and Gordon streets for building purposes. Granted.

From A. Williams, again drawing attention to the bad condition ofIllice street which is damaging his property.

Ald. Styles said the contractor is slow and was given 21 days to complete his contract. The time will expire in a few days, and unless the contractor expedites the work the city will take it over. Referred to Street Committee with power to act.

From the City Barristers, stating that Thornton Fell's claim against the city in the Yap Wing pawnbroker case was $179.80.

Ald. Powell was in favor of charging that sum against the Provincial Government. They made the law and should pay for its failure.

Ald. Penwill would also favor submitting it to the Provincial Government, provided the city could collect it.

The claim was referred to the Finance Committee with power to pay the same if found correct.

From J. R. Hett, solicitor for D. Clements, requesting the Corporation to refund a moiety of the license paid for a temporary liquor license. Referred to Finance Committee to pay if found correct.

From H. F. Heisterman, stating that he was not notified of a meeting of the electric light and street committees. He wished to know when the committees would find it convenient to meet the promoters of the Electric Street Railway Company.

The Council decided to meet Mr. Heisterman and his associates next Friday evening.

From E. G. Prior, Lieut.-Col. G. A., stating that eight months ago a communication was submitted regarding the erection of a drill shed for the local militia. The writer stated that he was surprised to find that a city like Victoria should be behind other places in Canada in providing drill sheds for the local militia. The Skating Rink on Yates street would make a most suitable place and was more central than the present one.

Ald. Styles said the City Council wished to know what sort of a building would be constructed before purchasing the ground.

Ald. Braden said the site on which the present shed is constructed would be exchanged for a more central site.

The communication was referred to a committee.

His Worship said the militia department would turn over the lots across James Bay provided the Council would give a few lots in a central portion of the city. His Worship was glad to find that something will be done.

From Charles Wilson stating that he is instructed, on behalf of Wm. Irvine, to apply for compensation for loss sustained by the city constructing sidewalks by day's labor whilst he is contractor for the city work. The communication was received and referred to the Street Committee and City Barrister to report.

From W. K. Bull, offering his services as collector of trades licenses. Referred to Finance Committee to report.

From Fisher & Wilson asking the Council to repair and lay sidewalks in front of new buildings on Fisgard street. Referred to Street Committee to report.

The clerk reported that an anonymous correspondent had sent in a letter.

His Worship—No communication will be read at this board excepting over the writer's signature.

From C. D. Roper, Ottawa, for statistics and also wishing to know the debt of the city.

Bills for horses from McNeill & Jones and J. D. Pemberton were read and ordered paid.

From H. Waller, Geo. Stelly, W. Craft and F. Norris, trustees for the Odd Fellows society, requesting the Council to construct a drain on the east side of Douglas street. Referred to the Street Committee with power to act.

Ald. Harris said he hoped the Council would remember that there is not much money on hand and no account in possession of the Council showing the condition of the finances.

His Worship hoped to place a statement before the Council next Wednesday evening.

PUBLIC MORALS BY-LAW.

Ald. Styles asked whether a communication was before the Council from a number of barbers asking to pass a law closing their shops on Sunday.

The by-law introduced by Ald. Wilson was reconsidered to permit the insertion of an amendment to close theatres from 12 o'clock on Saturday night until 12 o'clock on Sunday night.

The Public Morals By-Law was finally passed.

A communication from J. W. Griffiths was read claiming $150 for services as auditor. He received $60 and claimed $90. The communication was referred to the Finance Committee.

THE CITY POLICE.

Ald. Wilson's motion for the re-organization of the police force and notifying Supt. Bloomfield of his dismissal at the expiration of one month, was read. Ald. Styles seconded the motion.

Ald. Coughlan moved in amendment that Supt. Bloomfield be tendered three months' salary and dismissed at once. Seconded by Ald. Braden.

Ald. Braden said the Council was unanimously in favor of the original motion. Supt. Bloomfield was not satisfied with the arrangement and the amendment was introduced to hand over three months salary to Supt. Bloomfield.

The amendment was carried.

Ald. Wilson moved, seconded by Ald. Vigelius, that Sergt. Sheppard be requested to temporarily fill the position as Superintendent of Police. Carried.

Ald. Wilson said he wished to inform the Council that Officer Redgrave handed in his resignation. The Police Committee recommended that Mr. Redgrave's resignation be accepted.

Ald. Vigelius moved that the resignation be accepted and fifteen days' pay handed him. Carried.

REPORTS.

From the Street Committee recommending that the Gas Company be instructed to notify the Council when they wish to dig trenches for the purpose of laying gas mains.

Ald. Styles, chairman of the Street Committee, said the macadam streets were torn up to lay gas mains and he wished to have these pipes laid under the direction of the Street Committee. The report was adopted.

Ald. Styles moved, seconded by Ald. Braden, that the applications be received until 4 p. m. on Wednesday for the position of Superintendent of Police. Carried.

Ald. Vigelius said as a single member of the Council he thought a man might be found in the police force to fill the position. If men were promoted it would be an inducement to get good men to fill positions on the force, knowing that they would have an opportunity to climb up the ladder. He believed in promoting members of the present force if they sought the position.

Ald. Styles said his motion was not made to debar any member of the present force from applying for the position. On the contrary, he hoped they would send in applications.

Ald. Styles moved that applications be received until next Wednesday night for applications to fill the position vacated by officer Redgrave.

The motion was lost on the casting vote of the Mayor, and it was decided to leave the matter in the hands of the Police Committee.

His Worship said in connection with the library for this city that whilst walking around on Wharf street discussing the library question he met Mr. Rithet who is one of the most liberal gentlemen in this city. That gentleman said he might be called upon at any time for the donation of $50 under circumstances which would be a help which will materially assist in starting the library.

His Worship said the public meeting to discuss the removal of C. Battery was postponed at the wish of the Council. A telegram had been received from the Militia Department stating that it was not intended to remove the Battery from Victoria and it would be unnecessary to hold the meeting.

On motion it was decided to advertise for applicants for the position of Supt. of Police.

CHAPTER XX.

THE RECEPTION.

That evening there was a reception at the mansion of the secretary of state. Among the throng was a congressman, a tall man of noble countenance, with radiant dark eyes and white hair. He stood a little apart, and watched a lady who was moving through the crowd. All his soul was in his eyes as they followed her, not now a blooming girl in a white robe, with a red rose in her hair, as he saw her last, but a tall, pale woman in a dress of shining black stuff. Her marvelous loveliness, though different, was as striking as ever. Here was a beauty greater than time could dim. It was the comeliness of a beautiful soul, of a woman young with the eternal youth of genius and enthusiasm.

A gentleman was with her, fine and manly looking, and young. They neared the place where the congressman stood, coming slowly. His heart beat like a boy's again. He stepped back a little into the shadow. She moved through the throng erect and queenly, with the grace of a goddess. At every step she seemed to meet friends. Gray haired men, distinguished in public life, bowed to her with grave courtesy. Frank, ambitious young men, their souls yet full of boyish enthusiasm, pressed to meet her with a gladness beaming in their eyes. Young men adored Shirley.

They came so near that Congressman Dumoray heard the sound of their voices.

"How many friends you have, Shirley," he heard the gentleman beside her say.

She smiled faintly and shook her head. "I have hundreds of pleasant acquaintances, but not many friends, I think, Robert," she replied. "I don't like becoming attached to people in earnest. I hold them so high; and then after awhile they are sure to turn out either stupid or false."

"I wouldn't have believed you were such a cynic," said the gentleman.

"Oh, no; not that. But I don't like to be roused up. It hurts me so to find myself mistaken in my friends.

Dumoray heard her say it. He came out from the shadow, and took a turn through the long hall, and advancing met her face to face.

FACE TO FACE.

If a host of fierce emotions fell suddenly to fighting within their two souls, their quiet, cold faces gave no sign. They greeted each other as calmly as any two human beings might. Of all the love, the despair, the heartache that had been, if anything was left, no man alive could have discerned it.

"This," said Shirley, "is my English brother-in-law, Mr. Edgerly, who detests America and still can't keep away from it."

Now that he stood beside her, the man she loved saw with a quick pang how pale she was and the fragile look the years had left, as they stole, drop by drop, her splendid red blooded strength and elasticity.

"You look pale," he said. "It is very close here. If your brother doesn't mind I should like to take you into the air a little."

Robert bowed. She put her hand upon his arm, and they moved through the crowd to a recess where there was an open window. Here they were quite alone. They stood and looked into the brilliant night in utter silence. Yet still, if the feelings of other days came surging in a great wave over their hearts, the calm, cold faces, the motionless attitude, showed it not.

At length they talked, of indifferent matters first, then of their lives since they parted. It had been half a generation since then, yet these two were fated never to grow old in their feelings. At last he said suddenly;

"Has it ever seemed to you, Shirley, that you could truly forgive me?"

"I have done so long since," she answered, softly.

He pressed in silence the fair, strong hand upon his arm.

His wife lived on the same in body and mind. For all the change to be noticed in her, it might have been no more than a year since the morning she tried to murder Shirley. He found that Shirley's life, too, had gone on in the same melancholy round, the never ending care for others, the steady crucifixion of her own dearest hopes, the constant putting off from year to year the attainment of her own brightest ambitions, the brave marching onward under a burden of toil few men would or could have carried. She would have been too proud to accept aid had it been offered her. Was she never to cast her load aside till she laid it down in the grave? His heart ached for her—so proud, so gifted, and yet so weak in her great strength. And he could do nothing for her—nothing.

He led her back at last to the place where Robert waited. Before he turned to leave her once more, he said;

"I have told you twice before, Shirley—the first time more than twenty years ago—that if ever I could come to you I would do it. Remember that still, if you care to. If ever I am free, though it be a century, I will come to you and lay my heart at your feet."

She waved her hand in mute farewell.

A Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of tubercle germs into the system and when these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go wthout attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief. *

The Right Time.

Probably there is no period in life more important for the mental and moral training of youths than that between eight and seventeen years of age. If the spring-time of life is well employed, good results may be expected in after years. No better preparation can be afforded boys in this province than that which may be obtained at Corrig School, which is already largely patronized, and which a weekly increasing in number

HOW BARTTELOT DIED

Brussels, Oct. 17—An official account of the death of Major Barttelot has been received, which gives the following particulars: Barttelot had become excessively annoyed at the din caused by the man Yemas, attached to the expedition in the capacity of porter, etc., practicing singing and drumming at early hours in the morning and late in the hours of evening. On the morning of July 19th, in spite of an attempt of Captain Bonny to dissuade him, he proceeded alone to the the tent whence came the sounds of drumming. Shortly afterwards a shot was heard, and Barttelot's body was found in front of the tent with a bullet hole in his breast and his clothing near the wound burned with gunpowder. Prof Jamieson, hearing of the shooting next day, returned to the Barttelot camp, but found that the natives had deserted, taking with them the stores. Jamieson then retracted his route to Stanley Falls leaving Bonny at Aruwimi. Tippoo Tib, report says, was intensely grieved at the death of Barttelot. He had often, he said, warned Barttelot against his excessive harshness to the natives under him, and predicted dire results of his persistent overbearing and even brutal practices. Another relief expedition is regarded as almost impossible.

Madrid, Oct. 17—The situation here is unchanged. Republican agitators and conspirators infest the frontier, alert to take advantage of an expected emeute, but it is not believed there will be any trouble which could be turned to account by them.

IT WILL BE TO-MORROW.

San Francisco, Oct. 14—Congressman W. W. Morrow of this city arrived from Washington city to-day. Speaking of the Chinese Exclusion Bill he said: "There was some talk before I left Washington of introducing a bill requesting the President to enter into negotiations with Canada and Mexico with a view of getting those countries to adopt Chinese exclusion laws. Such a bill will doubtless be introduced in Congress next session. If adopted there will be no necessity to guard these frontiers. I think it likely such negotiations will be successful. Although Mexico has been encouraging Chinese cheap labor, I think the Mexican government can be induced to favor the United States so far as to exclude Chinese. The Canadian House of Commons, at its last session, did not appear much opposed to Chinese, but I think it will also co-operate with this country. Until that is done, the United States will have to be guarded at every point.

LIEUT. STONEY RESIGNS.

San Francisco, Oct. 14—It is reported that Lieut. George M. Stoney, U. S. N., who was for some time in charge of the branch hydrographic office in this city and who has just returned from a cruise to the north in the coast survey steamer Hassler, has tendered his resignation, and that it has been accepted. Several months since he made a business visit to Portland and Sound points and made many warm acquaintances there. Lieut Stoney entered the navy in September, 1870, as cadet midshipman, was promoted midshipman in September, 1875, ensign in 1876, and lieutenant in June, 1883. He is well known as an Arctic explorer, having traversed regions up north never before trod by white men.

The British Columbia Directory.

A new directory is now being compiled for the province of British Columbia. It will contain full descriptions and reliable information of the various places, besides an accurate list of the residents, &c., a personal canvass having been made by Thomas Draper. Owing to the large increase in the province, the volume will be at least double the thickness of previous years. R. T. Williams, Publisher, 28 Broad street. *

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—Furred Tongue and Impure Breath are two concomitants of biliousness remedied by Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. Heartburn, which harasses the dyspeptic after meals, and all the perplexing and changeful symptoms of established indigestion, are dispersed by this salutary corrective tonic and celebrated blood purifier. *

—Mr. R. A. Harrison, Chemist and Druggist, Dunnville, Ont, writes: "I can with confidence recommend Northrop & Lyman's Vetetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure for Dyspepsia, Impure Blood, Pimples on the Face, Biliousness, and Constipation—such cases having come under my personal observation." *

—These intolerably painful and constantly harassing things called piles, which trouble so many people, are soon healed by Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—the great external remedy for physical suffering and means for relieving pains. A very small quantity achieves results of the most gratifying kind. *

—C. C. Jacobs, Buffalo, an employee of the U. S. Express Co., says: Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured him of a bad case of Piles of 8 years standing, having tried almost every known remedy, "besides two Buffalo physicians," without relief; but the Oil cured him; he thinks it cannot be recommended too highly. *

—Worms cause feverishness, moaning and restlessness during sleep. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant, sure and effectual. If your druggist has none in stock, get him to procure it for you. *

—Is there anything more annoying than having your corns stepped upon? Is there anything more delightful than getting rid of it? Holloway's Corn Cure will do it. Try it and be convinced. *

—Mr. A. C. Parmlee, comptroller of Chinese immigration, says the government cannot do anything for Chinese naturalized in Canada who have been refused admission to the States. The exclusion act debars all persons of Chinese origin from entering the States even if American citizens.

—Mung Kow, a Chinese merchant of Montreal, and formerly of Victoria, was prevented from visiting New York on business under the new American Chinese exclusion act. He is a naturalized British subject, but when he applied at the United States custom-house he was told that he could not cross the boundary as the exclusion act covered his case. Mung Kow expressed his intention of testing in the courts whether he can be excluded.

—Mr. Duncan, it is said, will institute a suit against the government for $50,000, for loss sustained through the seizure of property at Metlakahtla. The property, which Mr. Duncan claims consists of a church, numerous dwellings, a saw mill and a salmon cannery. He will have a warm friend at court in the person of the Finance Minister, J. H. Turner, who gave him letters of recommendation to the people of the U. S., and advised him to seek a home where he could enjoy civil and religious liberty under the stars and stripes. And if Mr. Turner should assist Mr. Duncan to recover the claim the TIMES would not denounce the act as the most culpable one he had been guilty of in connection with the Metlakahtlans. He has a greater one than that to answer for.

Rev A G Bawstorne and Mrs. Bawstorne arrived from England last night and are registered at the Driard.

J C McLennan, recently teacher at Elgin, Mud Bay, leaves for Listowel, Ont., to-morrow. He resigned his school for the purpose of studying law at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Adam Brown, M P, of Hamilton, arrived in the city last night, and to-day was shown some of the attractions of Victoria by E G Prior, M P, J H Todd and other gentlemen. Mr Brown is a member of the wholesale grocery firm of Brown, Balfour & Co., and is a Scotchman by birth. He has occupied numerous positions of trust and responsibility in connection with railway and water works enterprises, and is a conservative in politics. He leaves for the mainland to-morrow morning.

Rosa Wiss, of Meriden, Mississippi, is held up as a model financier. Some one gave her five cents on her birthday by way of a joke. She bought a yard of calico with it, made a sun-bonnet, and sold it for forty cents. This capital she reinvested, and continued turning her money over. At last accounts she had cleared $40. When next we hear of this smart business woman it will probably be with a bank account of $40,000 behind her.

From Behring Sea.

The American schooners O. S. Fowler arrived from Behring Sea this forenoon, having 250 seal skins and a quantity of walrus hides and ivory.

Government Constable.

Mr. H. Redgrave will leave for Alert Bay on the steamer Nell to occupy the position of Government Constable at that place. The government will construct a residence at Alert Bay for the accommodation of the newly appointed officer.

New Bank Building.

Aid. Coughlin left for Nanaimo on this morning's train with a number of stonemasons and bricklayers. The work of erecting a new building at Nanaimo for the Bank of British Columbia will be commenced at once and will be completed before the winter season sets in.

The City Police.

Sergt. H. Sheppard will temporarily fill the position of Superintendent of Police, which was declared vacant at the Municipal Council meeting held last night. It is the intention of the Police Committee to reorganize the whole force and several important changes will be made in a few days.

Cruelty to Animals.

On Wednesday afternoon passers-by on Fort, near Government street, noticed a small white horse which had evidently been driven very hard. One side of the animal was quite raw, caused presumably by spurs. It is hoped the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals will cause the arrest of the owner of the poor beast for the purpose of investigating.

Dan Sully's New Play.

A great deal of pathos in the rough and much wholesome merriment, says the New York Sun, are the features of "Daddy Nolan," which Daniel Sully so successfully produces. There is not a scene in it that is dull and there is not an actor in the company who does not work with vigor and intelligence to give the piece an agreeable presentation. The new comedy deals with entirely fresh materials save that it retains "Daddy Nolan" and Jimmy the baby boy of its predecessor.

Very Much So.

We clip the following from the News-Advertiser of yesterday: "The Colonist and the TIMES are engaged in a controversy as to how much money it would require to make either of them "speak out" fearlessly on any subject, celestial or terrestrial. The Colonist, while daring its cotemporary to name a figure, modestly suggests that for itself "a two-inch leaf" would fill the bill. And yet there are people who go about saying that the Colonist overrates its own value!" That's about the size of it.

Prisoners Escape.

Four prisoners escaped from the United States penitentiary on McNeil's island on Sunday night. They were all occupying top cells and cut their way out through a twelve inch wall overhead, and then succeeded in cutting through the roof. They used their blankets, which were torn to pieces of about a foot wide and then tied together, attaching the end of which to a chimney, as a means of descent to the ground. There is no information as yet to their whereabouts and it is likely that they will steal a boat and make for this side. The sheriff has telegraphed a description of the escaped prisoners to different points. The men are called Douglass, Billings, and two others named Collins.

Southfield Mine.

Southfield, Oct. 17.—The fire is being encroached upon by the workmen hourly. It is not of very great extent, only the awkardness of getting the fallen rock away from the front delays the extinction of the last remnants of the fire. The roof has to be strongly re-timbered for safety, and every precaution is taken to ensure safety. Workmen have commenced to rebuild that part of the fan-house which was demolished. The fire company's Merryweather is still at work, and has done some remarkable water throwing, nearly an incessant stream from Monday morning, the stoppage at most being only for a few minutes at a time and at long intervals. The F. C. hope to be through in a short time now.

Victoria Choral Society.

Last evening the above society had its first rehearsal in the rooms of Messrs. Goodwin & Jordon. The committee are to be congratulated for selecting the oritoria, Judas Maccabaus, which is considered one of Handel's chef-d'œuvre. In point of numbers (considering other attractions) it was all that could be desired. The choruses rehearsed were: "O Father, whose Almighty Pow'r," "We come, we come, in bright array" and "See the Conquering Hero Comes," which gave every satisfaction considering that this oratoria is something entirely new. The President, Mr. C. E. Redfern, in addressing the members, called attention to the fact of their being punctual in attending rehearsals, and also asked the members present to bear in mind that after the 1st November a fee of $2 50 would be charged any person wishing to join the society. It behoves those who purpose becoming members to send in their names at once to the secretary, Mr. D. W. Morrow, P. O. box 435. The monthly subscription is on 50 cts., which surely is within the reach of all. The society we believe have under consideration the production of a suitable and popular opera. We predict a grand success for the society, and commend it to all those wishing to cultivate high class music.

THE MOODY SERVICES.

A Very Liberal Donation—The Hall Well Heated, Etc.

The Rev. Mr. Starr has had a cheque for $25 handed to him yesterday by a prominent member of the legal profession, to be applied towards meeting the expenses incurred in the fitting up, rent, etc., of the roller rink for the holding of Mr. Moody's lectures. The outlay has been considerable, and the committee will require liberal aid to enable them to meet the liabilities of the undertaking. The rink has had stoves fitted up to-day, which will make the building quite comfortable. The services will be continued during the present week, and in all probability for a longer period, owing to the success which has already rewarded the work of Mr. Moody. Choir practice at 7:30; meeting at 8 o'clock this evening.

NEW WESTMINSTER.

Canneries Closed Down—The Body Found—Insane, Etc.

Special to THE TIMES.]

New Westminster, October 18—Most of the canneries on the Fraser have suspended operations for the season, and the fishermen have been paid off to-day. The Bon Accord Cannery, situated four miles above Westminster, will continue to fish about two weeks longer in hope there may be a paying catch there on account of the withdrawal of boats from the mouth of the river.

The human remains found in a swamp on Tuesday last, on being examined, were supposed to be those of a Chinaman, and that the deceased was carried and left there when sick by his countrymen, in order that they might avoid further expense.

The addition and repairs to the Methodist Church are completed, and that edifice will be occupied by the congregation on Sunday next.

Yesterday a man named Levi Poque, who resided lately at Mount Lehman, was pronounced insane by the physicians and placed in the asylum here.
